Students status is not a mandatory mid-period report and is not a required report on the SAR 7 for CalFresh. If a student is meeting the student eligibility requirement with the work study exemption, is the work study income required to be reported on the SAR 7, even though it is considered an income exclusion? If required and not reported on the SAR 7, would this result in the students eligibility being questionable?

10. REQUESTOR'S PROPOSED ANSWER:

No, work study income is not required to be reported on the SAR 7 as it is excluded under 63-507(a)(6)(A).

11. STATE POLICY RESPONSE (CFPB USE ONLY):

Based on the information provided, the work study income is not required to be reported on the SAR 7. Per MPP 63-502.2 (e)(1), the following item shall be excluded from the household income: the educational assistance may be in the form of loans, on which payment is deferred, grants, scholarships, work study, fellowships, veterans' educational benefits, and the like.
